

Three Day Advanced Instructor Prep Workshop
Being offered for the first time at Riding To The Top, Windham, Maine.
Sunday, April 11 to Tuesday April 13, 2010.

This course will meet the education requirement for the NARHA Advanced Level Instructor Certification Program and must be completed prior to Advanced On-Site Certification.

Topics covered will be equine management, and horse assessment, plus time will be provided for personal riding and critiques. We will also look closely at teaching techniques specific to disabilities as well as those for able bodied students. A review of lesson planning and lesson evaluations will also be covered. Correct mounting and dismounting techniques will be reviewed and practiced as needed.

Space is limited so inquire as soon as possible.

Fee: $350

Faculty: Kristin Mason, Advanced NARHA Instructor, NARHA Registered Level Lead Evaluator, Vermont NARHA State Chair, and Chair of the EFMHA Region Liaisons.
